Agreement Between the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA and JAPAN

Effected by Exchange of Notes at Tokyo August 3, 2020

Entered into force August 3, 2020
NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Pursuant to Public Law 89—497, approved July 8, 1966 (80 Stat. 271; 1 U.S.C. 113)—

“. . .the Treaties and Other International Acts Series issued under the authority of the Secretary of State shall be competent evidence . . . of the treaties, international agreements other than treaties, and proclamations by the President of such treaties and international agreements other than treaties, as the case may be, therein contained, in all the courts of law and equity and of maritime jurisdiction, and in all the tribunals and public offices of the United States, and of the several States, without any further proof or authentication thereof.”
August 3, 2020

Excellency,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of Your Excellency’s Note of today’s date, which reads as follows:

"I have the honor to refer to the Mutual Defense Assistance Agreement Between Japan and the United States of America, signed at Tokyo on March 8, 1954 (hereinafter referred to as “the MDA Agreement”), which provides, inter alia, that each Government, consistently with the principle that economic stability is essential to international peace and security, will make available to the other such equipment, materials, services, or other assistance as the Government furnishing such assistance may authorize, in accordance with such detailed arrangements as may be made between them.

The Government of Japan and the Government of the United States of America recognize that Command, Control, Communications, Computers, Intelligence, Surveillance, and Reconnaissance Capabilities (hereinafter referred to as "C4ISR Capabilities") are important elements in the defense policy of both Japan and the United States of America.

The policy of the Government of Japan is that the strengthening of C4ISR Capabilities is one of the priorities in strengthening capabilities necessary for cross-domain operations as well as strengthening the Alliance’s deterrence and response capabilities. The policy of the Government of the United States of America is that modernized C4ISR Capabilities are one of the key capabilities to address competitors’ ambitions and enhancement of their capabilities.

In this regard, the representatives of the Government of Japan and the Government of the United States of America have recently held discussions for the purpose of making such detailed arrangements as mentioned above concerning a program for the cooperative research on C4ISR Capabilities within the scope of the above-mentioned policy of each of the two Governments (hereinafter referred to as "the Program"), taking into account the exchange of information

His Excellency
Toshimitsu Motegi,
Minister for Foreign Affairs,
Tokyo, Japan.

Diplomatic Note
undertaken in accordance with the Memorandum of Understanding Between the Ministry of Defense of Japan and the Department of Defense of the United States of America concerning projects for cooperative research, signed on February 17, 2010 (hereinafter referred to as "the Memorandum of Understanding of 2010"), made under the Exchange of Notes of the same date between the Government of Japan and the Government of the United States of America concerning a program for the cooperative research on Image Gyro for Airborne Applications and concerning the formulation of additional programs for cooperative research under the MDA Agreement. The following is the understanding of the Government of Japan regarding the results of the above-mentioned discussions:

1. In accordance with the detailed implementing arrangements to be made under paragraph 4 of this understanding, the Government of Japan and the Government of the United States of America shall mutually provide information, equipment, and materials that are necessary to implement the Program, subject to the laws and regulations of each country. The two Governments shall jointly bear the costs necessary for the execution of the Program.

2. The Program shall be undertaken through contracts with industries of Japan and industries of the United States of America to the extent necessary.

3. The present understanding shall be implemented in accordance with the MDA Agreement and arrangements made thereunder, including the Agreement Between the Government of Japan and the Government of the United States of America to Facilitate Interchange of Patent Rights and Technical Information for Purposes of Defense, signed at Tokyo on March 22, 1956.

4. In order to implement the present understanding, representatives of the competent authorities of the two Governments shall make detailed implementing arrangements that shall be applied to the Program. The detailed implementing arrangements shall consist of the Memorandum of Understanding of 2010, as it may be amended, and project arrangements. For such arrangements, the competent authority of the Government of Japan shall be the Ministry of Defense, and the competent authority of the Government of the United States of America shall be the Department of Defense.

5. The financial obligations and expenditures incurred by the Government of Japan and the Government of the United States of America under the present understanding and all arrangements to be made hereunder shall be subject to budget authorization pursuant to the constitutional and legislative provisions of the respective countries.

I have the honor to propose that, if the above understanding is acceptable to the Government of the United States of America, the present Note and your reply of acceptance shall be regarded as constituting an agreement between the two Governments, which shall enter into force on the date of your reply and shall remain in force until six months after the date of the receipt of notice of termination by either Government.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to you the assurance of my high consideration."

I have the honor to confirm on behalf of the Government of the United States of America that the foregoing understanding is acceptable to the Government of the United States of America and to agree that Your Excellency’s Note and this reply shall be regarded as constituting an agreement between the two Governments, which shall enter into force on the date of this reply and shall remain in force until six months after the date of the receipt of notice of termination by either Government.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurance of my highest consideration.

Sincerely,

Joseph M. Young

The policy of the Government of the United States of America is that modernized C4ISR Capabilities are one of the key capabilities to address competitors’ ambitions and enhancement of their capabilities.

Mr. Joseph M. Young
Chargé d’Affaires ad interim of the United States of America
In this regard, the representatives of the Government of Japan and the Government of the United States of America have recently held discussions for the purpose of making such detailed arrangements as mentioned above concerning a program for the cooperative research on C4ISR Capabilities within the scope of the above-mentioned policy of each of the two Governments (hereinafter referred to as "the Program"), taking into account the exchange of information undertaken in accordance with the Memorandum of Understanding Between the Ministry of Defense of Japan and the Department of Defense of the United States of America concerning projects for cooperative research, signed on February 17, 2010 (hereinafter referred to as "the Memorandum of Understanding of 2010"), made under the Exchange of Notes of the same date between the Government of Japan and the Government of the United States of America concerning a program for the cooperative research on Image Gyro for Airborne Applications and concerning the formulation of additional programs for cooperative research under the MDA Agreement. The following is the understanding of the Government of Japan regarding the results of the above-mentioned discussions:

1. In accordance with the detailed implementing arrangements to be made under paragraph 4 of this understanding, the Government of Japan and the Government of the United States of America shall mutually provide information, equipment, and materials that are necessary to implement the Program, subject to the laws and regulations of each country. The two Governments shall jointly bear the costs necessary for the execution of the Program.
